- More organised activities to be introduced to all parks
- Is the retention of parks a statutory duty if the Council?
- Contractors should fulfil their contractual duties
- Difficulties faced for people in wheelchairs AND those walking with a stick/cane/crutches.

- Friends of the Parks should be offered more recognition for their work

4. DISCUSSIONS/EVENT PLANNING

Laura Bessesl – Benefits Team Leader explained the forum members some of the implications of the Bedroom Tax. It was explained that there were mechanisms provided by the Council for those suffering from severe consequences of the bedroom tax and commented that residents were able to apply for a Discretionary Housing Payment.
